

- Sugar Maple
 - U Lobes
 - No Milk when stem is cut
 - Can be used for furniture and firewood
 - 2nd most common maple
 - Maple Syrup
 - Most of sap is water

- Sweet Gum
 - One ingredient for Citronella
 - Sap is sugary and elastic
 - Sap is like chewing gum
 - What Indians used

- Black Walnut
 - Black stuff will stain clothes
 - Woodstains have walnuts in them
 - Expensive lumber
 - Compound pinnate leaf

- White Oak
 - Rough, flakey bark
 - Get really big

- Red Oak
 - Symmetrical Leaves
 - Rough and smooth spots like a ski slope

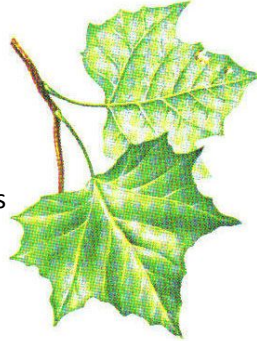

- Poplar (Tulip Tree)
 - Softer hard wood
 - Tend to be brittle in wind storms
 - Don't want poplars near home
 - Get a tulip-like flower
 - Used for furniture

- Sycamore
 - Love water, wetlands
 - Hard to cut
 - Not a lot of uses but seeds for birds
 - Peeling bark

- Flowering Dogwood
 - Has a bud that looks like a queen's crown
 - Coronus Florida
 - Get a white flower
 - Do not grow very big

- Day Lily
 - Tolerate almost any soil
 - Full sun

- Holly
 - Male and female plants
 - Females have berries

- Magnolia
 - Cucumber and Sweetbay Magnolias
 - Oval Leaves
 - Often flowers get a long fuzzy bud

- Juniper
 - Very strong pungent smell
 - There are juniper trees and shrubs

- White Pine
 - Needles come in bundles of 5
 - Long needles
 - White sap on the pine cones when it dries
 - Sap will stain
 - Tree used for wood finishing
 - Awesome for molding
 - Soft
 - Usually one of the larger evergreens
 - Gets a lot of knots
 - Value to ecosystem because of seeds in pine cones

95% of mushrooms in Pa are poisonous

A lot of non-brightly colored are poisonous as well

- Ragweed
 - Wildflower comes out in August/September
 - Leaves like a marigold
 - Gets tons of pollen sacks
 - Pollen very bad for allergies
 - Big and spikey pollen grains

Fruit trees have long skinny leaves, which generally have teeth

- Hawthorn
 - Thorns like a splinter
 - Native Americans used them to sew... Like a needle

- Hickory
 - Compound pinnate leaf
 - Shagbark hickory easy to tell
 - Long Peeling Strips
 - Shellbark
 - Pig Nut (smallest)

- Nature's Rouge
 - Little Hairs that make face red

- Wild Mint
 - => smells nice ^_^

